Hire a Genealogist for Online Research of Ancestors and Descendants using Ancestry.com and Familysearch.org Databases Only – Together we would set a very specific goal with a measurable outcome, a report format, and a research timeframe.

Fees are $25.00 per hour plus expenses if applicable. All fees are paid up front. We will come to a written agreement before any extra expenses beyond the hourly rate would be incurred.

This service is often helpful to ...

- someone not having the time to follow all the hints on ancestry.com but wants his/her family tree updated
- a genealogist who wants to verify s/he has completed an exhaustive search in these two databases and hasn't missed anything
- someone wanting a very, specific, targeted search within these two databases

Examples:

- Please do 4 hours of updates on my ancestry.com tree for the Clark line following the hints and making all the source connections in the personal profiles.
- Please find all the primary source documents in the ancestry.com and familysearch.org databases for Rebecca Stuart. I only have her father and mother's name. Please do 5 hours of research.

Hire a Genealogist for Research of Ancestors and Descendants beyond Ancestry.com and Familysearch.org

Or

Hire a Private Research Consultations – Together we would set a very specific goal with a measurable outcome, a report format, and set timeframe. I do not charge for my learning curve, only for directly researching and documenting your focused topic. Special projects for family reunions, gifts, anniversaries etc. are priced separately.

Fee starts at $50 per hour plus expenses and/or mileage if applicable. Expenses could be travel costs, postage, bank fees for money orders, printing etc. We will come to a written agreement before any extra expenses beyond the hourly rate would be incurred.

This service is often helpful to ...

- researchers not having the skills to research beyond the two main databases
- a researcher who wants to know where to go next to find a specific document or pick up a new lead
- plan a research location trip so you are ready to research when you get there
- a genealogist who needs to search for a record and mail away for it but does not have the time or is out of her expertise area

Examples:

- Please find out for me the best way to get a birth certificate for Marsha Williams from Albany City, NY.
- I have searched the two main databases for the Jacob Wooley family. Where do I go from here?
- I am planning a trip to Louisville, KY. Where will I need to go to do some family research?

Please note:

Research services may include the following reports. The exact nature of your service report will be delineated in writing before service begins.

- Ongoing email updates as research progresses
- Emailed final summary of the completed research, referencing the documents and details found
- Emailed research journal, detailing all paths followed during the research
- Digital copies of all images, documents, transcriptions, and/or other items uncovered
- Detailed expense report listing the items purchased or costs incurred such as money orders, printing, mailing supplies etc.

Lineage Society Applications and Historical Society Certificates

Applications – There are too many societies and certificates to name. But if you have found one or need help finding you, this is the service for you. Keep in mind that if you are joining the DAR or SAR, the registrar of these societies will help you complete your application for free. If you get stuck and have exhausted their service, then please do contact me. It is hard to tell in advance how many hours it will take to complete an application. You would need to contact me and I can give you a good estimate.

Fees are $50 per hour plus expenses and/or mileage if applicable. Expenses could be travel costs, postage, bank fees for money orders, printing etc. We will come to a written agreement before extra expenses beyond the hourly rate would be incurred.
